

Discover
Connect
Inspire

Consilium is an AI chatbot platform, which helps organisations to take decisions and making strategy using data science techniques. Consilium uses natural language inputs in terms of voice and Text and return output in voice, text, dashboards, decision trees etc. Consilium shall be helpful for all levels of management from application support to Strategy making. It could connect to Planning applications like TM1, Dashboarding using Qlik or any other database as source.

Communication Agents

Technology Integration

Features

- Consilium takes input in Voice / Text and returns answers in Voice / Text
- Consilium can Support 24*7. Very effective in case of difference in time zone of technical support team and users
- Consilium does Data discovery from any API, Data repository , Databases like SQL , OLAP cubes in natural language
- Consilium does on-demand search through Enterprise documents like user manual, technical document, HR policies etc. to help user with their questions
- Consilium is language intelligent and conversational; understands intents of users and act accordingly
- Consilium has in-built email sharing capacity.
- Consilium can act as single window for data discovery, information search , application support , dashboarding and reporting and interface to access machine learning models for Strategic Decision making

NLP Voice Agent

Application Support

Dashboard

Enterprise Document Search

Strategy

